DEVIL" OF ARLISS

Differs Widely From the Original German Version in Treatment.

The Arliss "Devil" is announced at the Belasco Theater next week. Molnar's comedy "The Devil" has been played in two distinct manners both in this country and in Europe. In Budapest, where this singular play was originally produced in the Hungarian language, it was played as a subtle symbolic comedy; in Vienna it was vulgarized into a travesty bordering on

It was this German version that was first brought to this country together with a German stage manager to see that the various acts should carry out the German idea even to the point of scarlet waistcoats and red coat-tails. The Fiske version, in which George Arliss will be seen, is different in spirit and conception. The play has apparently given Mr. Arliss the opportunity of a life-time and has made of his title role a finished and subtly fascinating

NATIONAL-"The Talk of New York." "The Talk of New York," the musical play recently completed by George M. Cohan as a starring vehicle for Victor Moore, comes to the New National Theater next week.

It is said by those in a position to know that it will prove the most ambitious effort of Mr. Cohan's remarkable career.

In the new play "Kid Burns" still halls from New York's rural hamlet, New Rochelle. He is still said to be the whole-souled creature he was in "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway." "The Talk of New York," however, takes "Kid Burns" through three acts of new surroundings. The race track and the betting ring play an important part in the development of Mr. Cohan's story,

The salary list is said to be one of the highest paid in this particular field and the roster of the company includes Joseph M. Sparks, Susanne Leonard Westford, sister of Miss Lillian Russell; W. Douglass Stevenson, Thomas Emory, Charles Willard, Walter P. Richardson, Russell Pincus, Alf Helton, Percy Helton, Ella Sothern, Mae Helton, Kathryn R. Perry, Lester Templeton, and Stanley G. Fields. The chorus and the stage settings are said to be of the highest order.

COLUMBIA-Niblo Travel Talks.

Tomorrow afternoon at 4:30 Fred Niblo will repeat the pictorial pilgrimage through Egypt that was seen last Sunday evening. In none of Mr. Niblo's travels has he been rewarded with more excellent photographic results, especially the motion pictures, as on this remarkable trip to the Soudan, and he is justly proud of this series.

Mr. Niblo is credited by leading the Supported of His Bride's

PAYS VISIT TO THE CAPITAL

MISS ETHEL MAY HAYNIE.

ISS ETHEL MAY HAYNIE, who has become well known by her work in grand opera with the Manhattan Company, is in Washington for an extended visit.

With the Manhattan Company Miss Haynie is known as Ethel May Hendrick, and both names are probably familiar to Washington musiclovers. Miss Haynie is a native of Washington, her father being Joseph W. Haynie, a manufacturer of pianos and a musician of no mean ability. She studied music in this city before making her debut on the stage.

Miss Haynie will spend a month in Washington at 1524 Eighth street, before returning to New York to rehearse with the Manhattan Company for an engagement which extends through the summer and which includes the leading cities of the South.
